

Certified Lay Ministry

THEOLOGY BEHIND

Certified Lay Ministry

The church's ministry is derived from the ministry of Christ, who bids all people to receive salvation and follow Him as disciples in the way of love. This summons to ministry is to the whole people of God, or Laity (laos) who are "a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession," charged to "declare the praises of Him who has called us out of darkness and into His wonderful light." (1 Peter 2:9) Baptism initiates this call to ministry, empowered by the Holy Spirit. — 401.1, TBD&D, 2023

With the exception of the offices of bishop and presiding elder (district superintendent), which are reserved for elders, all Laity and Clergy may serve in various offices. Offices of ministry refer to what followers of Christ do for the general building up of the body of Christ. Offices include, but are not limited to, apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, teachers, administrators, miracle workers, healers, and helpers (Eph. 4:11-13, and 1 Cor. 12:28). The Holy Spirit works in and through a call to ministry and the subsequent discernment and affirmation of that call by the church. — 401.2, TBD&D, 2023

One of expression in the Global Methodist Church of the call to ministry of the laity is the Certified Lay Minister (CLM). Some of many things a CLM is called/equipped to do are:

Preaching The Word; Conducting Public Worship; Caring For The Congregation; Developing Faith Communities; Leading Small Groups; And Establishing Community Outreach Ministries as part of a ministry team with the supervision and support of a clergy person. Much like a class leader in early Methodism, the certified lay minister enhances the quality of ministry to small-membership churches as part of a circuit or cooperative parish or by expanding team ministry in other churches and charges. As with lay ministry in early Methodism, the Certified Lay Minister expresses his or her gifts as evidence of God's grace.

But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

— 1 Peter 2:9

So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, 12 to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up and we are called through our baptism to our biblical mandate to equip God's people for the work of serving and building up of the body of Christ through various gifts for service

— Ephesians 4:11-12

Our mission as Certified Lay Ministry staff/leadership network is to serve as channels of God's grace by providing an avenue to explore and share God's gifts through spiritual discernment, training, support, and accountable discipleship to better define what it means to make disciples for the transformation of the world so that all God's people will know Christ and become vital in the Spirit.

Our goal in the Global Methodist Church is to faithfully prepare and equip laity as they bear the responsibility for carrying out the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20). The Certified Lay Minister is one area of ministry laity may be in ministry to others as individuals and as a part of the church.

As of now the recommendation to the Transitional Leadership Council for the Global Methodist Church from the CLM Task Force are as follows. **
