In the Trinity Conference of the Global Methodist Church, we are grateful for local church pastors who are “called out from among God’s people for particular service to his church.” (Book of Doctrines and Disciplines ¶503).

The Trinity Conference recommends each pastor submit an account of their ministry to the Charge/Church Conference each year. The following questions can help you craft your report:

- Have you been involved in a Wesleyan Discipleship Group in the past year?
If so, what have you learned from it?
- What is your favorite moment in ministry from the past year that you can celebrate with the church?
- Where do you currently see the Holy Spirit at work in your personal discipleship?
- Where do you currently see the Holy Spirit at work in the ministry of the church?
- Who do you believe God is calling you to be in the upcoming year?
- Who do you believe God is calling your church to be in the upcoming year?
- What are you currently praying about?
- Anything else you would like to mention:

The form field on the following page is available for you to write your responses to the above questions.
